THE MISSING MIDDLE

Affordable housing for low-income households is a recognized top need in California, but what about the long-neglected income segment between 80-150% of AMI, the so-called “Missing Middle”? This discussion will include case studies of middle income projects, enabling legislation, new housing options and efforts to retain NOAH (Naturally Occuring Affordable Housing).

1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

RENEWING REDEVELOPMENT

It's time to get serious about restoring comprehensive redevelopment programs in California. This discussion will review the history of redevelopment and its dissolution, recent efforts to expand some elements of the program, and possible 2019 redevelopment legislation.
